1. BACKGROUND

The West Bengal Power Development Corporation Limited (WBPDC) is a fully owned Government of West Bengal Enterprise. The Company is a Thermal Power Generating Company having 5 Thermal Power Stations at different locations in West Bengal with total existing installed capacity of 3860 MW. WBPDC is the prior allottee of the 4 Nos.captive coal blocks – Pachwara (North), Tara (East & West), Barjore & Integrated Gangaramchak–Bhadulia as on date and these coal blocks deliver about 25 – 35% coal requirement of WBPDC. The turn-over of WBPDC for the Financial Year ended 31st March, 2014 was around Rs. 7,400 Crores.

Consequent upon issue of the order dt. 24.09.2014 of the Hon'ble Supreme Court, the Ministry of Coal, Government of India has issued Coal Mines (Special Provisions) Ordinance, 2014 on 21.10.2014 to comply with the directives. In terms of the order of the Hon'ble Supreme Court the above referred coal blocks have been de-allocated.

Subsequently, on 19th November, 2011 the Ministry of Coal, Govt. of India has circulated a draft of the rules proposed to be notified under the above referred Coal Mines (Special Provisions) Ordinance, 2014 seeking comments on the draft from the stake holders and members of public. From the proposed draft rules, it is understood that the Ministry of Coal, Government of India will initiate the process of auction of the coal mines in the manner specified in the Ordinance and the proposed Rules, very shortly. The coal blocks which will be put-up for auction will be notified by the nominated authority, as appointed by the Ministry of Coal. The Tender documents for tendering process to participate in the auction would be issued. The said tender documents would include such information as the nominated authority may consider expedient for the purpose of auction.

WBPDC, considering the present scenario, wish to participate in the auction of coal blocks in competitive bidding mode to own the operated coal block/mines preferably WBPDC's own blocks as well as other operated mines and the other coal blocks which will be in operating condition shortly and is in a developing stage which will be indicated by MoC. To participate in the bidding process, to know the geo-mining condition, techno-economic aspects and evaluation of the block to decide the justified price of the block, WBPDC invites Expression of Interest (EOI) from well experienced consulting companies who are interested to assist WBPDC throughout the bidding process.
